

With the ever-changing rules of the appellate courts, Avalon's experts are here to simplify the appellate process for you.

Filing details should be the last thing on your mind. Avalon works with attorneys to prepare, produce, and file briefs and records. We manage hundreds of appellate matters a year, so you can focus on crafting your arguments without needing to worry about specific document handling rules passed down by the courts.

With the ever-changing rules of the appellate courts, our experts are here to simplify the appellate process for you by:

- Consulting with you concerning your project
- Intaking documents via client-provided files or download directly from NYSCEF
- Digitally adding page numbers and page headers
- Providing the court with a text-searchable, bookmarked PDF of the Record and Brief per court requirements
- Staying up to date on court rules and ensuring that your Record and Brief adhere to any regulations
- Annotating and deskewing pages to enhance scan and image quality
- Preparing digital draft copies for review by all parties
- Drafting Tables of Contents and Tables of Authorities for briefs
- Digitally filing with hardcopy service if required by the rules with certified proof of filing and service
