

While electronic data is growing exponentially, paper-based evidence is still relevant, which is why Avalon continues to offer this crucial service to our clients.

Focus on your case by entrusting a variety of critical legal document services – including imaging, OCR, printing, and trial exhibits – to Avalon. Our document solutions team members are known for their speed and accuracy, and always go above and beyond for our clients.

While Avalon offers world-class legal tech services, including eDiscovery and digital forensics, we also assist law firms and in-house legal departments with paper discovery and have been for more than 24 years.

Paper Discovery

While electronic data is growing exponentially, paper-based evidence is still relevant, which is why we continue to offer this crucial service to our clients. Avalon is one of the few remaining midsize companies that offers paper discovery, as many other larger vendors are unwilling or unable to perform this service.

Combining accuracy and speed to deliver the evidence you need

Avalon has handled enormous paper discovery projects, including one that ranged across 130 U.S. cities. Our ability to meet tight deadlines and deliver a high-quality work product is why we continue to be the vendor of choice for firms and organizations around the country.

Our paper discovery services include:

- Legal document copying, scanning, and printing
- Bates numbering
- OCR
- Specialty litigation support services

Trial Exhibits

Your evidence needs to make an impact in court. Avalon's document professionals will print your trial graphics and exhibits using the latest technology for sharp, brilliant color that brings your photos, maps, timelines, and more to life.

Avalon's legal presentation solutions include:

- Trial exhibit boards
